

ATTACHMENT 6: DECISION CHART

Directions: All applicants should use the following chart to determine which RFP best fits their program model. If, after reviewing the chart, you are still unsure, please email WFDTraining@masscec.com, and a member of our team will assist you.

Who do you plan to serve?

Youth (under 18)	Young Adults (18-24)	Climate Critical MWBEs	Adult learners (18+)
↓	↓	↓	↓
Apply to the Equity Students and Young Adult Career Pathway RFP , which will include planning, capacity building, and implementation funding. Programs with equipment costs exceeding $20,000 should submit an additional application to this RFP	↓	Apply to Climate-Critical Underrepresented Business Support , which includes planning and capacity grant options.	Apply to this RFP and consider the Equity Workforce Training RFP.
Review the following sections to determine the best fit.
Programming planning to serve Young Adults 18-24 with a focus on providing:		Programming planning to Young Adults 18-24 with a focus on providing:
A combination/ selection of career exploration, career navigation, career readiness, work-based learning, project-based learning or service-based learning that produces the following types of outcomes: - Increased knowledge and interest in climate-critical fields - Foundational skills Off-ramps to formal training, internships, and expanded career exploration		A combination/ selection of career readiness, career navigation, technical training, work-based learning, and on-the-job training that produces the following types of outcomes: - Foundational and career readiness skills - Career pathway plans - Technical skill development Off-ramps to employment (including full-time apprenticeship positions)
↓		↓
Apply to the Equity Students and Young Adult Career Pathway RFP , which will include planning, capacity building, and implementation funding. Programs with equipment costs exceeding $20,000 should submit an additional application to this RFP .		Apply to this RFP and consider Equity Workforce Training.	